1. Commitment

BBGI Global Infrastructure S.A. (“BBGI” or the “Company”) is committed to cultivating and preserving an organisational culture which implements a policy of support for internationally recognised human rights and seeks to avoid complicity in human rights abuses.

Human rights refer to basic standards of treatment to which all people are entitled. It is a broad concept with economic, social, cultural, political and civil dimensions.

The Company’s main responsibilities lie in a number of material human rights areas, connected with operations and/or supply chain¹: treating employees fairly, employees’ rights to equal treatment and inclusion, promoting a diverse workforce and Boards and also aiming to prevent human rights violations in our supply chain.

- BBGI is a signatory of the Ten Principles of the United Nations Global Compact² in the areas of Human Rights, Labour, Environment and Anti-Corruption.
- BBGI supports the principles contained within the Universal Declaration of Human Rights³ and the International Labour Organization’s (ILO) Declaration on Fundamental Principles and Rights at Work⁴.
- The Boards of BBGI give due consideration to both the gender and ethnic diversity of their composition. The goals of the FTSE Women Leaders and the Parker Review on Ethnic Diversity on Boards are fully acknowledged as part of that consideration.

2. Putting our commitment into practice

1 Diversity, equality and inclusion

BBGI recognises the value of having a diverse workforce from different backgrounds and with different abilities which provides the Company with a ‘diversity of thought’. Diversity of thought is about recognising how different perspectives, skills, abilities, knowledge, attitudes, and information styles, or a combination of these, inform the Company’s approach to solving problems. This diversity can be influenced by many factors on the basis visible (nationality, race, colour, gender, age, ethnicity, civil partnership, education) or non-visible (physical or mental disability, sexual orientation, religious beliefs, cultural and socio-economic background) factors.

BBGI considers equality as the fairness of access, opportunity and advancement for all within an organisation.

Inclusion is the state in which any employee can be and feel respected, valued, safe and fully engaged.

BBGI is committed to providing a workplace environment where everyone⁵ has an equal opportunity to perform at the highest levels, realise their potential and be recognised for it. This applies to all aspects of the business, employment policies and practices including:

¹ Supply chain is defined as the portfolio companies’ underlying agreements with material subcontractors.

⁵ BBGI Global Infrastructure SA and its consolidated group companies’ employees (‘BBGI Staff’) and directors.

- Recruitment;
- Terms and conditions of employment;
- Compensation and benefits;
- Working conditions;
- Personal development;
- Career progression and promotions.

2 Fairness

Treating employees fairly is core belief at BBGI. The Company strives to provide a safe, respectful and inclusive working environment. All BBGI Staff directors and are required to demonstrate the principles of respect, fairness and loyalty in their work with BBGI.

3 Non-discrimination

BBGI respects each individual's human rights and will not discriminate on the basis of visible (nationality, race, colour, gender, age, ethnicity, civil partnership, education) or non-visible (physical or mental disability, sexual orientation, religious beliefs, cultural and socio-economic background) factors.

All BBGI Staff and directors to feel they work in a respectful work culture and are treated fairly. These expectations include:

- respect for each individual and rejection of discrimination in any form;
- contributing to a respectful environment and interactions, enabling everyone to perform to their maximum potential;
- appreciation for all individuals as a sign of tolerance and openness, and as a practical necessity for the Company to succeed as an international organisation.

4 Board members appointment/diversity of boards

The process of appointing any new Directors is led by the Nomination Committee. In recruiting new Directors, the Nominations Committee actively seeks greater diversity by gender, ethnicity, nationality and other criteria, whilst remaining committed to selecting members on merit with relevant and complementary skills to help the Company maximise stakeholder value. The Company will continue to make future appointments at all levels on the basis of the full merits of the individual candidates, and the strengths, skills and experience that they would bring to the composition and balance of the Boards or Company as a whole.

5 Freedom of association/collective bargaining

BBGI respects BBGI Staff's rights to join, form or not join a labour union without fear of reprisal, intimidation or harassment. The right to freedom of association and the effective recognition of the right to collective bargaining are legally protected rights in the countries where BBGI operates.

6 Harassment

Harassment can be any offensive act, comment or display that humiliates, insults or causes embarrassment, or any act of intimidation or threat. The Company commits to providing all BBGI Staff and directors with a working environment free of all forms of harassment or bullying, whether that be physical, verbal, sexual or psychological in nature, or any other form. This is done in accordance with the legal provisions in place, and BBGI shall take appropriate action should any individual be the victim of any act of harassment or bullying.

7 Occupational health and safety

BBGI is committed to the health, safety and wellbeing of BBGI staff and directors.

As a responsible employer, we believe it is morally right to ensure our employees are protected and have a safe working environment. The Company recognises both the importance of the physical health, safety and mental well-being BBGI staff and directors.

We aim to be compliant with all applicable health and safety legal requirements, and that best practice health and safety management standards are implemented and maintained across the Company.

BBGI adopts strategies to minimise personal health and safety risk across our operations, such as providing and maintaining safe physical environments, equipment and systems. All BBGI Staff and directors have roles to play in building a safe working environment, including the identification of possible workplace practices, actions or incidents which may cause, or contribute to, the mental illness of workers and take actions to eliminate or minimise these risks.

- Health and safety risks are assessed, managed, recorded, monitored and reported by our dedicated Health and Safety Officer.
- Appropriate policies, procedures and safeguards are in place and put into practice by our dedicated Health and Safety Officer. This includes making sure that BBGI Staff and directors have access to appropriate information, instruction, training and supervision.
- BBGI Staff and directors have a responsibility for helping to create a healthy and safe working environment.
- BBGI Staff and directors are expected to take ownership of their safety and are encouraged and empowered to report any concerns.

8 Supply chain

BBGI applies a Responsible Contractor Policy when selecting independent subcontractors. This Responsible Contractor Policy describes the Company's standards of environmental, social and governance performance within the supply chain.

9 Anti-Slavery and Human Trafficking

BBGI annually produces a UK Modern Slavery statement, setting out the Company's standards and values in relation to slavery and human trafficking. Portfolio Companies are encouraged to adopt similar provisions to those set out in this statement.

3. Raising Complaints

Any individual who is subjected to, witnesses, or believes they may have been subjected to, any acts contrary to this policy is encouraged in the first instance to raise it with the Management Board.

In the event that the incident involves the Management Board, or the individual does not feel comfortable to raise it with them, they may as an alternative make use of the confidential whistleblowing service, details of which are contained in the Company's Whistleblowing policy, to which all BBGI Staff have access.

4. Legal

BBGI will at all times look to adhere to good practice guidance on human rights, diversity and equality, whilst ensuring compliance with relevant Luxembourg legal requirements. Should there be any conflict between the two, the Luxembourg legal requirements shall prevail.
